

Catwalk-inspired make-up trends: Perfect pastels

Trend 5: Perfect pastels

For those with paler skins the latest trend for pretty pastel shades to complement summer's floral influenced fashions could be just the look for you.

Use an illuminating powder to give your complexion a radiant healthy glow without dewiness. We adore Dior Poudrier Dentelle (£39) which gives skin a subtle rosy glow.

Keep lips moist and supple with just the tiniest hit of colour using a subtle lip balm like Pop's new petal jam (£9 www.popbeauty.co.uk).

Load up on fake lashes for a more intense evening look. Blink+Go false lashes can be applied at home or by a skilled technician who will tailor the lashes to suit your eye shape. (From £8.95. Call 0845 644 3994 (ext 32) for more information).

Paint nails in pretty ice-cream pastels using Orly's Sweet Collection (£8.95 www.cupidandgrace.com). Our fave is Snowcone blue (pictured).

Catwalk image: Chloe fashion show as part of Paris Fashion Week Spring/Summer 2010.

Read more: Catwalk-inspired make-up trends: Perfect pastels

Feature found at

<http://www.ivillage.co.uk/beauty/picturegallery/popup/0,,718208-5,00.html#image>